

The Program in Gender and Sexuality Studies announces a new semester II course

Sense and Scientific Sensibility:
Beyond Vision,
from the Scientific Revolution to Now

GNSS 1960M – CRN 15146

Prof. Sophia Roosth

Tuesdays, 4:00 pm - 6:20 pm

Scientific inquiry is often considered a visual endeavor: researchers peer into microscopes and telescopes and stare at graphs, diagrams, and computer screens. But on what other senses do scientists rely?
